

Life Scout... Brynn Maleryn, Life Scout and a founding member of Scouts BSA Troop 1028 in Hebron, successfully completed her Eagle Project. Maleryn designed, planned and led the efforts of several Scouts and others to build a stone fire pit and stage at St. Peter's Preserve on Saturday, Oct. 2. This project is the last major step on her path to becoming the first female Eagle Scout in Hebron Scouting.

Trunk or Treat

All are invited to join the Hebron Parks and Recreation Department for a night of trunk-or-treating, pumpkin-decorating, music, bounce houses, hot chocolate, wagon rides and more, on Friday, Oct. 29, from 4:30-6:30 p.m., at Burnt Hill Park. The event is free. Decorated vehicles needed. Call 860-530-1281 to register a decorated car, and come prepared with enough candy for approximately 300 people.

Evening with Joe Courtney

The Hebron Democratic Town Committee invites everyone to an evening with Congressman Joe Courtney at Blackledge Country Club, located at 180 West St., from 6-9 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 30.

Donation of $40 per person includes admission to the event, appetizers from the Blackledge Kitchen, and some trivia. Cash bar will be available.

Visit Hebrondems.com to get your tickets. Donations go towards funding local elections.

Douglas Library News & Notes

Douglas Library, located at 22 Main St., has announced the following. For more info and full program descriptions, and to register, call the library at 860-228-9312 or visit www.douglaslibrary.org.

Library Hours: Monday and Wednesday, noon-8 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday, 10 a.m.-8 p.m.; Friday, noon-6 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m.-3 p.m. All patrons are encouraged to wear masks and practice social distancing. Curbside pick-up requests will continue to be filled in the lobby of the building.

Knit-Wits: This knitting circle meets Mondays, 6-7:30 p.m. Crochet and needle pointers are welcome as well as all skill levels. No registration required, bring your project or your questions.

Poetry Corner: To have work considered for the Poetry Corner in the library's monthly newsletter, submit it to info@douglaslibrary.org with the subject line "Poetry Submission." All ages and skill levels are encouraged to participate. Poems should be original works written by individuals living in Hebron or Amston, and not copyrighted.

Friday Films: The library is showing newly-released films Fridays at 1 p.m. The schedule is: Oct. 15, Cruella; Oct. 22, Out of Death; Oct. 29, Old. The movies will be shown on the library's 80-inch 4K TV with surround sound speakers. Bottled water and individually wrapped snacks will be provided. Call the main desk at 860-228-9312 with any questions. Registration is not required.

Witches in Connecticut: On Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 6 p.m., the Connecticut Historical Society will present the story of the hanging of witches in colonial New England. Hear the stories of some of the women and men accused, tried and executed as witches. This is an in-person program, but register on the library website should this change.

"In the Spirit" Book Discussion: Will meet Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 7 p.m., at the American Legion, next door to the library. This month, read This Tender Land by William Kent Krueger. Copies of the book will be available for check-out at the adult circulation desk. Must be 21 and over to attend the book discussion.

Teen Zone: The Teen Advisory Group (TAG) will meet from 2:30-3:30 p.m. every Tuesday in October. The schedule is: Oct. 19, prep for Haunted Library; Oct. 23, Haunted Library final prep, with the event starting at 4 p.m. Registration is not needed for any of these events.

Haunted Library: Saturday, Oct. 23, from 4-6 p.m. The Teen Advisory Group will run a scary and non-scary course through the library. The event is free, but donations will be accepted.

Children's Department: In-person story-time for ages birth-5 has resumed on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 10 a.m. in the library's Community Room. The program will be held on a smaller scale than in the past. Pre-registration is required as class size is reduced to 10 children with their caregiver at each class.

Lions Winter Storage Returns

The Hebron Lions are offering Winter Storage again for 2021-22.

Storage is available for automobiles, trucks, motorcycles, boats, motor homes and travel trailers, in exhibit and livestock buildings from November until April on the Hebron Lions Fairgrounds 347 Gilead Rd.

Move-in will start on Saturday, Nov. 6, from 9 a.m.-noon and will continue the following Saturday, Nov. 13, also from 9 a.m.-noon. Anyone requesting storage after Nov. 13 should call 860-942-2527 to set an appointment.

The storage rates for the season for covered storage in the animal barns is $17 per linear foot; Enclosed Storage is $20 per linear foot; and motorcycle storage is $75. There is no need for you to measure your vehicle, as the Lions will measure them.

Space is on a first-come, first-served basis. Indoor and covered storage is limited, but there is unlimited outside storage for $100 per unit for any length. The Hebron Lions are required to charge Connecticut state sales tax of 6.35% on all items stored.

The Lions will be using Gate 5 for registration on Nov. 6. People should stay in their vehicle until asked to go to the Gate House.

Calls for rental pick-ups will be made during April for vehicles to be removed from the fairgrounds. All vehicles must be removed from the Fairgrounds by April 30.

For more information, contact Lion Lee Anderson at lee.anderson@hebrontharvestfair.org or 860-942-2527.

Burrows Hill Paving

The Town of Hebron Public Works Department will conduct pavement maintenance on Burrows Hill Road the week of Oct. 25. Public Works said it expects lengthy construction delays and advises motorists to use an alternate route.

For more information, call Public Works at 860-228-2871.

St. Peter's German Dinner

St. Peter's Episcopal Church will hold its next monthly community dinner Saturday, Oct. 16, from 4:30-6:30 p.m. or until sold out. The menu will include warm German potato salad, sauerkraut, red cabbage, bratwurst, cucumber salad, rye bread and assorted desserts. The cost is $14.

This is a take-out-only dinner with no pre-orders or reservations – first-come, first-served. Servers will come to your car, take your order and dessert choice, and return to your car to place them in the back seat or trunk. You will not get out of your car. Servers will be masked.

As part of the St. Peter's outreach programs, a portion of each meal sold this month will go to Camp Care, Inc. The church is located at 30 Church St. (Route 85) in Hebron.

For more details, contact the church at 860-228-3244 or visit www.StPetersHebron.com.
